Performing with Understanding:

The Challenge of the National Standards for Music
Education

Presents key ideas and practical suggestions for implementing the music standards through performance. Includes discussion of how the standards apply to the performance aspects of all music programs, the role of bodily movement in performing, model rehearsal strategies that incorporate the standards, and effective ways to broaden the performance repertoire to include music beyond that of the Western tradition. Based on a Northwestern University Music Education Leadership Seminar. Edited by Bennett Reimer. 1999. Approx. 128 pages. ISBN 1-56545-118-X.
